
ELIZABETH A. PECTOR, M.D.

Elizabeth A. Pector, M.D. is a board-certified family physician in Naperville, IL. Her letters and articles have been published in medical journals and lay publications. She is married, and is the mother of David, born in 1991, and twins Jared and Bryan, delivered in 1997 the day after Bryan's death from a cord accident.

She has spoken on bereavement and special needs in multiples to local and national audiences, and remains interested in issues facing multiple-birth families including parent stress, prematurity, special needs, and cultural beliefs about multiple births.

Newborn and Infant Nursing Reviews, Medical Economics, Family Doctor Magazine, Diabetes Self-Management, The Clergy Journal, Preemie Magazine, and other professional and consumer publications and websites. Beth is on the editorial board of Medical Economics effective January, 2006, and is on the editorial board of the now somewhat inactive American Journal of Diabetes.

She is coauthor of a book chapter for Dr. Keith and Blickstein's revised book on multiple pregnancy. Examples of her past work are available on request. A few are posted at www.synspectrum.com/articles.html, and many organizations have reprinted her self-published articles from that page. Beth has excellent research skills, and quickly assembles health information from a variety of sources into clear prose that readers enjoy.

Visit her website: <http://synspectrum.com/articles.html>